

Undergraduate Transcript Requirements

The secondary-level transcript requirements listed here are organized by region and correspond to the main education system(s) used in each country.

Please contact international@mtsu.edu for further guidance if:

- Your institution follows a different education system than the one listed for your country.
- Your country's transcript requirements are not listed.
- You have any other questions about your academic documents.

Please note: Transcript requirements are subject to change as educational systems evolve and institutional policies are updated. Applicants should refer to the most recent version of this guide and contact the Office of International Admissions with any questions.

Use the links below to view the transcript requirements for your country.
